VOTE FOR PETRA! FINALIST OF THE “NEW 7 WONDERS OF THE WORLD” CAMPAIGN

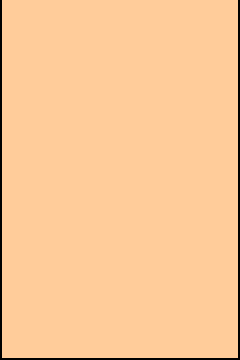

On January 01, 2006 a judging panel of leading architectural experts chaired by the former Director general of UNESCO, Prof. Dr. Federico Mayor, announced which of the world's sites would be taking part in the final stage of the race to become one of the New 7 Wonders of the World. The campaign was first launched in 2000, attracting till date more than 19 million voters from around the globe. Experts have considered 77 sites and drawn up a shortlist of 21 finalists, which includes Petra.

A World Tour visiting all 21 finalist wonders and a TV series will take place during the final year of the campaign, culminating with a live broadcast of the Official Declaration of the New 7 Wonders of the World on 07.07.07.

Your vote can make a difference and help Petra claim its place in History. It will be recognized as monument that has a truly global meaning. We are already proud of being part of the 21 finalists, since each one of them is a unique monument that belongs to its culture and country in its own way.

Petra is called the “Lost city”. After being the glittering capital of the Nabataeans, It suffered a major earthquake and was completely lost to the western world until rediscovered in 1812 by a Swiss traveler, Johann Ludwig Burckhardt. Petra is already described as the eight wonder of the ancient world because of its architecture and its amazing beauty.

Petra is in fact a wonder to set your eyes on. The 2000 years-old city carved out in red sandstone is one of the most famous and jaw-droppingly stupendous sites in the world. “A rose-red city half as old as time”. Its rock reddish color can change to pink, orange or even pale-yellow depending on the time and the sunlight.

In short, Vote for Petra as it is a great symbol of Engineering and Protection. Vote for Petra as no one will ever be immune to its beauty. Vote for Petra as it is testament of the greatest wonders ever molded by Nature and Man.
